VOL. II.

PARIS, BOURBON COUNTY, KENTUCKY: TUESDAY, AUGUST 7, 1883.

NO. 151.

REV. MR. TALMAGE will preach to-day and to-morrow at the Parks Hill Camp-meeting.

CATHOLIC picnic at the fair grounds and raffle for the gold watch, will take place to-morrow.

THE Cincinnati Enquirer says that Deputy U. S. Marshal Heflin, of Maysville, has been relieved for "talking too much."

JASPER JETT was married to Miss Melissa Curtis in the County Clerk's office yesterday, by the Rev. D. A. Beardsley.

OVER 16,000 deaths from cholera, have taken place in Egypt, and the disease is still sweeping along, though in a less virulent form.

J. E. CLAY delivered last Thursday, to Chas. Keith, of Covington, 130 hogs sold last May, at 6 1/2 cents, which averaged 230 pounds.

SID P. CLAY caught two German carp out of his pond one day last week which weighed 17 pounds. They were just eighteen months old.

A DISPATCH from Lancaster, in the Cincinnati Enquirer, says that all of the telegraph operators on the K. C. extension have struck for higher wages.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ARMSTRONG found Rube Gatewood, the thief whom Capt. Hall shot for stealing his chickens, but when he came back to get out a warrant, the bird escaped.

A HANDSOME Turkish ottoman, made by Mrs. Jas. Short, Jr., and valued at $50, was raffled off last Friday night at Foster & Sanders'. Allen Bashford was the winner throwing 45.

CONDUCTOR HENRY GREEN has a rare coin—a cent and a quarter. Several friends to whom he showed it were amazed to find that it consisted of two pieces—a copper cent and a silver quarter.

THE Maysville Bulletin says that "it expected to announce the arrival of several new babies last week, but further time was asked for and granted."

W. A. PARKER has a dog that digs potatoes, gathers all other vegetables and does everything else that the cook does. The dog is fast learning to cook and will soon be able to prepare its own meals for not—Parker's.

GOV. BLACKBURN has pardoned the desperado George Kennedy and Dave Ferguson, the defaulting treasurer of Louisville. He will no doubt open wide the gates of the penitentiary before Proctor Knott goes in September 4th.

The people of Huntsville, Alabama, have petitioned to have the next meeting of the Morgan Reunion in their city, on account of it being the birthplace of Gen. John H. Morgan, and promise to entertain all who attend in princely style.

W. A. PARKER, as agent of Mrs. Ben Rickets, received a check from Attorney Henry L. Stone, of Mt. Sterling, amounting to $233.82, the same having been recovered from the Workmen's Association, as an insurance on the life of her husband.

SIXTY entries have already been made in the trots of the Cynthiana fair. Catchfly, Fugue, Alexander, Hinda Rose, Kittle Silver, Keno, Leontine, Alice Stoner, Judge Haves and John R. will contend for purses, and some extra fast time will be made.

Geo. MITCHELL writes from the Blue "lets." Please say in the Presbyterian extension advertisement that the guests will up at the Arlington, as arrangements have been made with this house only. Large crowd here and still coming. The News now up immense."

A LARGE vote was polled yesterday, and the Hon. Chas. Offutt re-elected Representative over James Brown, by a majority of about 275. Offutt carried Paris precinct by 16, Clintonville 28, Hutchison 18, and made a tie vote at Maysville. The other precincts usually giving large Democratic majorities are yet to hear from. The vote yesterday was perhaps the largest ever polled in the county.

THE State Convention of the Colored Christian Church will meet Saturday and Sunday August 25th and 26th at Richmond. On Sunday an excursion will pass over the road from Maysville, the fare for the round trip being: From Maysville, $2.00; Carlisle, $1.75; Maysville, $1.50; Paris, $1.25; Winchester, $1.00. The train will leave Richmond to return at 12 o'clock at night. The managers of the excursion are Lewis Corrington, of Maysville, A. Merchant and J. H. Hall, of Carlisle.

Look out for thieves, pick-pockets and bunco men all this week. They will precede the two circuses and will get in their work on the two show days. Last week two of the meek and lowly soundrels stopped at the most pious old gentleman's house in Mt. Sterling and produced a genealogical pedigree dating back to Adam and proved up their relationship with the host. On circus day the buncoed an old miser named Stewart, out of $2,500, and gave him back $1,500 of it to keep quiet. Of course, they escaped arrest.

REMEMBER the days and dates and don't make an error. There will be two "only eight combined aggregations of stupendous aquariums and horticultural avalanches" here this week. Don't pay any attention to those little blind bear and stuffed limb exhibitions going through the country in a regular cheap-John fly-up-the-creek style on half rations and no pay, but come in Thursday and Friday and see the two grandest shows now traveling here on top of this green earth. Will you come? You bet you will—you'll all "want to see a man."

THE best Bluegrass tobacco sold in Cincinnati last week at $25.75; Pendleton county $23.25; Brown county, Ohio, $23.75; Mason county $23.50; and Owen county, $19.75. The market remains firm and the supply decreased. The drought has had its effect with sellers, but the buyers claim that recent rains have dispelled the fears of a short crop, but that is not true. There have been no recent rains in Kentucky, and it is evident from the already dried condition of the crops all over the State, that the general crop will be cut short from 25 to 40 per cent. A premature ripening will cause many in the Bluegrass region to commence cutting this week, whereas the crops should have grown from three to four weeks later.

MILLERSBURG.

Tom Bowden and wife arrived here from Savannah, Ga., Saturday.

Mrs. Helen Purnell has returned home with her sister, Mrs. Black, to Greensburg, Ind.

Jackson Reid will commence cutting his tobacco to-morrow, in consequence of premature ripening by drought.

John G. Smedley and family and Miss Fannie Clark arrived home from a tour of the Eastern watering places, Friday evening.

Jas. P. Rogers arrived Saturday from Florida. He came a distance of 1,000 miles to vote for Proctor Knott and a constitutional convention, and lost his valise in the bargain.

S. C. Carpenter sold his fine show gelding at the Mt. Sterling fair, to Wm. Kerr, for $650. He took $75 dollars worth of premiums on him the same day, making $725 the sum total.

The following party went down to the Camp-meeting Saturday morning to camp: Mrs. Jos. A. Miller, Mrs. Laban Beardsley, Miss B. P. Johnson, Mrs. Carroll, Miss Nora Wadell, Miss Ella Fleming, Miss Mary Miller, Miss Frankie Allen, Royce Allen, Carlton Miller and Willie Hayes.

Will McClelland came up on a business trip from Mason county, Saturday. He recently bought 20 bushels of the Blackbeard Centennial wheat from Virginia, for which he paid $7 per bushel. It is said to yield from 60 to 75 bushels per acre. Several other Mason farmers bought the same in lots of a single bushel at $7 per bushel.

SCINTILLATIONS.

Your uncle Dan Rice will greet his many friends here Thursday.

Miss Anna Smith, of Vera Cruz, Ohio, is the guest of Miss Nannie Walsh.

The Cynthiana Democrat says that Capt. Oscar Kennard is dangerously ill.

John Ireland went to Missouri with Harrison Ayers, to make a short visit.

J. M. Hughes, wife and daughter have returned from the Eastern watering places.

Mrs. Jos. Shawhan and family, of Cynthiana, are visiting the family of Arch Stout.

The Misses O'Bannen and Arnold, of Eminence, are the guests of Mrs. Wm. Rash, of North Middletown.

Sam Stitt, of Millersburg, is filling Tom Paul's place in the saloon, while Tom is gone on a repeating tour in the mountains.

Mrs. Clancy, mother-in-law of Capt. Hugh Henry, and her son, from Augusta, Ga., are the guests of Capt. Henry and wife.

The Michigan man who attempted to kick a piece of pine away from a rapid saw now shows only one foot to the corn doctor.

Dr. A. J. Beale has given up his practice at Rutland, Harrison county, and has accepted the position of deputy sheriff in the place of Dick Collier.

Some girls don't care what they love, just so it is something. Miss Sallie Terry, of Harrison county, fell in love with and married a bear last week—Mr. Alfred Bear, of Corinth.

James B. Weaver, real estate agent from Fargo, Dakota, arrived here Saturday to spend a few days with John H. Rogers and the Pretwell boys, who came in recently from his town. He reports the wheat crop of Johnson Rogers exceedingly fine, but says it will not do to harvest before the first of the month.

Conductor John Myers, who fell from the townside bridge recently and got mangled up very badly, was talked into leaving Saturday to the home of his brother-in-law, in the North Middletown precinct. He was resting comfortably on a sick-chamber wagon, taken from a K. C. train and placed in an ambulance wagon.

A Scandal Corrected.

We are satisfied that the report published in the News of July 31st, 1883, touching the separation of Joseph B. McClinton and wife, is untrue, and it gives us pleasure to state.

Late Arrivals at the "Arlington."

The Parks Hill Camp-Meeting.

About 4,000 persons attended the camp-meeting Sunday, coming in on special trains from Lexington, Louisville, Stanford and Maysville. The day was dry, dusty, cool and peculiar. Dr. West, of Nashville, preached one hour and twenty-five minutes in the morning, which pleased us very well, because we didn't have to hear it; and we think if he had out it just one hour shorter, it would have pleased the 2,000 in the auditorium better.

Dr. Hannah, also of Nashville, studied the comfort of his audience closely, and preached a shorter sermon in the afternoon.

The assembly at the camp though large, was orderly to a pleasurable extreme, and showed up less of that detestable dudge and dudge dash, gawgaw apparel and gum-chewing frolics than in years gone by. Everybody appeared to be in the big behave but a few duds on the thins who had to have their annual show-off of idleness. This show-off will take place, though the heavens wobble and threaten to go crooked.

On account of the Rev. DeWitt Talmage, who preaches to-day and to-morrow, the crowd will be large, and of select people, minus the dudge and dudge element. The old, settled and well-behaved middle-aged public will congregate in large numbers to hear this eminent divine—many for his sterling worth, and many through morbid curiosity.

The evening visitor will get a good view of the camp far away, and will attract strangers from all sections within striking distance.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

JUDGE WILEY on the 30th announced his decision on the motion to quash the indictment in the case of ex-Senator Kellogg, charged with illegally receiving money while a United States Senator. The judge held that the indictment charged an offense against Section 1782, Revised Statutes, and that the action was properly brought under it. He therefore overruled the motion to quash. Kellogg was notified and immediately entered a plea of not guilty. The day for the trial of the case has not been fixed.

PROFESSOR COVES, of the Smithsonian Institute at Washington, has opened an active campaign against the English sparrow. The following is his plan for extermination, as recently submitted to Major Lydette, Engineer Commissioner: First—Abolish the legal penalty for killing the birds. Second—Permit the sparrows to be killed within the city limits by any means, except by the use of firearms. Third—Offer two cents a head for dead sparrows. Fourth—Make sparrow heads receivable for taxes. Fifth—Make it a part of the ordinary care of the public streets and parks to destroy the nests, eggs, and young.

By the direction of the President, a general Court-martial has been appointed to meet at Vancouver Barracks, Washington Territory, August 30, for the trial of Second Lieutenant Samuel C. Robertson, charged with duplicating pay vouchers for the month of June last.

It has been reported to the Treasury Department that the British Parliament is considering measures looking to the interdiction of cattle from foreign countries where foot and mouth diseases prevail, and that an attempt will probably be made to have it apply to importations from the United States. It is stated at the Treasury Department that such an application would be unwarranted, as a thorough investigation of the subject just concluded has shown that foot and mouth diseases do not prevail among the cattle of this country. Steps will be taken to bring this fact to the attention of the British Government, to the end that orders on the subject may not be made applicable to the importation of cattle from this country.

It has been ordered by the authorities at Washington that all neat cattle arriving in the United States from any part of the world, except North and South America, shall be subjected to a quarantine of ninety days, counting from the date of shipment. As the Dominion of Canada maintains quarantine for all imported, no quarantine for cattle imported from Canada is provided.

DURING the month of July, usually the driest month in the year, the report of the mail division of the Pension Office shows there have been received 2,925 original invalid pension claims and 4,501 of all others, including widows, minors, increase claims, old war bounty land, etc.; 26,163 pieces of additional evidence, 15,219 reports from the Adjutant General, and 8,687 from the Surgeon General, 65,974 letters of inquiry and miscellaneous, 14,400 orders for medical examination returns, 6,840 reports from special examiners, and 2,376 Congressional letters of inquiry. A DEMAND has been presented to the Secretary of the Treasury on behalf of the State of Virginia, for the sum of $73,809, being the fourth installment of the amount directed to be deposited by the thirteenth and fourteenth sections of the act of June 23, 1836, entitled "an act to regulate the deposits of public money." By these sections it was directed that the surplus revenue that should be in the Treasury on January 1, 1837, after reserving $5,000,000, which surplus was ascertained to be $37,408,859, should be deposited with the State, then twenty-eight in number, according to representation, in four quarterly installments during the year 1837, and to remain with such States until called for to meet appropriations by Congress. The first three installments were so deposited, but the payment of the fourth was never made, as there has never, until the present time, been a sufficient sum in the Treasury not subject to charges. This claim involves the question of deposit.

with other States, which in all amounts to $90,000. The attorneys for Virginia claim to have documents and other evidence showing it to be the duty of the Secretary of the Treasury to make this deposit, and will argue the question before him.

FOREIGN.

NEARLY 1,000 pilgrims left Ottawa, Canada, on the 30th, for St. Anne De Beaupre. They were accompanied by a Catholic Bishop of Ottawa and a number of clergymen. It is alleged that miracle cures have been effected on previous excursions. Scores of lame and blind are with the party.

JAMES CAREY, the Irish informer, is reported to have been assassinated on the 30th on ship board, on the South African coast, by a man named O'Donnell, who three years ago attempted to blow up the Mansion House in London, and escaped to New York. The English Government selected Africa as the safest place for Carey. It is thought that he did not himself know his precise destination.

CHARLES S. SCHMIDT and family, of Cincinnati, O., were in the town of Cassamicciola, near Naples, at the time of the earthquake a few days ago. They all escaped uninjured. It is estimated that the number who perished on the island will reach three thousand. Subscriptions have been opened throughout Italy for the relief of the distressed. By a singular coincidence, the play at the theater that night was a burlesque which opened with a scene representing an earthquake.

FUNDS are being collected in Ireland to be used in defending O'Donnell, the assassin of James Carey, the informer. O'Donnell is closely guarded to prevent an attempt to rescue him. He took passage on the Melrose for Cape Town, but learning that Carey was a fellow-passenger, he continued his journey till opportunity offered to shoot him in the presence of his family.

A WOMAN named Paquet and two children were drowned on the 31st, while crossing the Lower St. Lawrence River during a storm.

THE unrecovered bodies at Cassamicciola, the scene of the earthquake, will be left where they are and liquid lime poured over the ruins beneath which they are buried to prevent the horrible exhalations.

THREE pilgrims on the pilgrimage of Ottawa passed to the shrine of St. Anne De Beaupre. One case was that of a girl named Lavonia Dorion, who lost the entire use of one of her legs several years ago by an accident. The other cures are those of two children, six years old, who had never been able to walk. Father Labelle, who is the leader of the pilgrimage, vouches for these.

LATER NEWS.

INTENSE heat is reported at Cairo. Six out of every ten of the British troops who are stricken with cholera die. The total number of deaths in Egypt is now said to be sixteen thousand. The authorities in London have become roused to the point of directing that cargoes of rice from Egyptian ports must be thoroughly disinfected.

The telegraph operators of the Toledo and Wabash and the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroads contemplate presenting a bill of grievances similar to that of the operators already out. The companies will be given twenty-four hours for answer. It is believed that if the operators on these roads strike, the locomotive engineers and many of the train men will also stop work.

MISS SARAH BURNS, aged sixteen, living two miles from Fayetteville, Ark., committed suicide on the 3d. She went to the barn, got on the roof, placed one end of a rope about her neck and the other end of a pole and jumped. When found she was dead. DEATH BY EARTHQUAKE.

A Number of Towns in Sunny Italy Destroyed by an Earthquake—Three Thousand Persons Reported Killed—The Injured Almost Beyond Calculation.

NAPLES, Italy, July 30.

Three thousand inhabitants of the Island of Ischia were killed by an earthquake Saturday night. The productive part of the island was ruined, and vineyards, farms, mines, baths and summer residences by the hundred were destroyed. About 9:30 o'clock Saturday night, soon after the majority of the inhabitants of the town of Cassamicciola, Italy, a watering place of about three thousand five hundred inhabitants, had retired to rest, shocks of earthquake began to be felt. Many of the citizens of the upper classes were at the theater at the time. The first trembling of the buildings awoke those who were sleeping, and caused the theatergoers to be filled with alarm. In an instant a more violent shock came. The people in the theater rushed wildly out of doors.

The fourth shock leveled most of the houses of the town. Many of the citizens were resting in their beds. These were buried under the toppling walls.

The Hotel Piccola Sentinella sank into the earth and burned with many of its inmates. Some of the inhabitants escaped to the sea at the first shock and made their way to Naples with the news of the calamity. The ground opened in many places, while in other places there was no movement.

Water gushed out of the springs. Several boilers in the bathing-houses burst. The theater, a wooden structure, was literally torn open, allowing the audience to escape.

A gentleman who was staying at the Hotel Piccola Sentinella, and who escaped his life, relates that he only had time to secure some candles for use in the darkness and ruins before the collapse of the building occurred. A person who lived near the now ruined bathing establishment says he escaped from the place amid falling walls and balconies, terrified people shouting: "To the sea!"

The shock came with irresistible violence, and was accompanied by a deafening noise. The confusion in the theater was fearful. Lights were overturned and set fire to the building, and a dense cloud of dust filled the air. Cries of pain and terror were heard on all sides. On hearing shouts of "to the sea," a general rush was made toward the shore. Every boat and floating thing was taken by assault.

Among the dead are Prof. Palma; Baroness Dirissey; Commander Zapputi; Signora Cecere and children. It is probable that the Marchioness Pacca Laurati is also among the dead.

The whole island is in a condition of intense terror, suffering and helplessness. Although all the steam vessels within reach have been endeavoring to aid the people, and have managed many thousands of the injured to the main land, the thousands of injured cannot be estimated.

The destruction was most complete at Cassamicciola, the famous pleasure resort, with its hot springs and baths, the Saratoga of Italy. Of its population of 4,000, and its summer visitors to an equal number, few escaped death or injury, and the loss deeply affects every portion of Italy, as the guests were drawn from the wealthy and aristocratic districts of the entire kingdom.

Several members of the National Assembly and the Senate are missing and unaccounted for, while the earth opened and buried forever a number of Roman families who had visited the island on a pleasure excursion.

Many hundreds were killed at Ischia, the capital of the island and the seaport nearest to the mainland, among them being the Prefect, Florentini. As soon as the news reached Rome and Naples, assistance of every available sort was forwarded. Among the first to leave for the scene were Admiral Acton, the Minister of Marine, and Signor Berti, the Minister of Trade, who were not content to issue their commands from Rome. Details of several hundred soldiers and marines, whose services could be utilized as sappers, or in the temporary hospital, or kindred work, were also taken to the island. They improvised stables and carried hundreds of the wounded to the steamers which took them as well as numbers of the homeless to Naples.

DASHED INTO ETERNITY.

An Express Train Collides with an Empty Car Near Carlton, N. Y.—Twenty-five Persons Killed and Over Thirty Others Severely Injured.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., July 30.

News was received here early Saturday morning of a terrible disaster on the Rome, Watertown & Ogdensburg Railroad, near Carlton, Friday night. As the Thousand Island train, which was running at high speed on the main line, neared Carlton, the engineer noticed a single car standing on the track ahead of him. He at once put on the air-brakes and reversed the lever of his engine, but before the speed of the train could be slackened the engine dashed into the obstruction, and in an instant all was a scene of wreck and confusion, and the air was filled with the groans of the dying and injured. The engineer, who heroically remained at his post, was fatally injured when the crash came. The fireman, who stood by him till the last, was instantly killed.

The car which caused the disaster was blown on the main line by the high wind which prevailed at the time of the accident. The leading engine was thrown in the ditch and was not much damaged, but the second engine was thoroughly broken up.

The party of tourists on board the ill-fated train was a large and merry one, and before the accident they were laughing and talking over the enjoyment they expected to have in visiting the Thousand Islands, Quebec, Montreal and other Northern points. The engine struck the freight car with a terrible crash, and in a moment cars and passengers were plunged into an indiscriminate heap, enveloped in darkness, and drenched with rain. Moans and piteous cries for help came from the wreck. Appeals for assistance were sent to Lisle, Osgo, and a relief train was instantly forwarded.

Then began the dreadful work of extricating from the ruins the mangled bodies of the dead and wounded. The work was necessarily slow. While carrying off the dead the workmen's ears were pierced with the agonizing cries of those in whom life had not been utterly crushed out, and their hearts sickened as they saw the suppliant gaze of those too faint to utter their appeals.

In several cases of the wounded no hope of recovery is entertained. The bodies of many killed are crushed beyond recognition, and the work of identification is necessarily slow. The Coroner's Jury did not finish its investigation until adjourned till next week.

A man who had lived but a few rods from the scene of the disaster had driven his son to Lyndonville, three miles away, to take the train. The father got home just in time to find him a corpse. The station agent at Carlton asserts that he set the brakes on the freight car in the evening. It is not certainly known whether the car was blown along the side track upon which it stood to the junction with the main tracks, where it was when the train came and struck it, or whether it was run to that point by some malicious persons.

THE COMMONWEALTH.

Dr. J. B. KIDB, a dentist, of Lexington, aged about thirty-five, while operating on the teeth of a lady patient, Miss Scullen, a few days ago, fell dead from heart disease. He was quite a popular and enterprising young man and his death is greatly deplored.

J. H. ODELL, Chief of Police, of Winchester, Clark County, who shot and killed Will Hayden, has been arrested on a charge of murder, and is now in the custody of the Sheriff, awaiting his examining trial. Considerable excitement prevails among the colored people. The sympathies of the best class of citizens are with the officer. Hayden was a desperate character, and was noted for his daring and strength. It is said that he is the same negro who resisted the Marshal at Winchester a year ago, and succeeded in making his escape with the Marshal's pistol hanging to his coat sleeve, where it had caught when the officer attempted to fire.

Among the things said at the reunion of the Morgan Raiders, at Lexington, was this from a speech by General R. W. Gano: "We failed in our defense of principles, and our cause was called the lost cause, but though we suffered defeat, the great principle of States rights remains. We fought for our cause unaided, and while the cause went down, the principles we fought for still remain." General Morgan's grave was visited, and flowers were placed upon the graves of the Confederate dead.

In Livingston County, near Otisville, on the Chesapeake & Ohio road, nearly three weeks ago, two negroes named Cad Maxley and Elijah Mills deliberately murdered a negro lad whose name is unknown. The boy had in some trifling way displeased the men, and they armed themselves and went to his mother's, and in her presence shot him fifteen or sixteen times. The murderers were arrested and jailed at Smithland in the Circuit Court of Livingston. They were indicted, and on the 27th their trial was taken up. There was great indignation in Livingston, particularly among the blacks, over the murder, and Maxley and Mills are not legally hanged they are liable to be lynched.

THE following patents were issued to Kentucky inventors a few days ago: Henry B. Ashbury Germantown, F. A. Neider and G. Grossman, Augusta, culinary vessel; John C. Leonard, Covington, spinning machine; Walter Y. McPherson, Owensboro, horse-drawers; Fred A. Neider, Augusta, strap fastener for carriage curtains, carriage curtain window.

AN Elizabethtown, Hardin County, dispathe of the 31st, says: "A negro named Ed. Payne was arrested at Glendale yesterday and brought to this place last night, charged with committing an outrage on a negro girl, who is said to be his stepdaughter. He was examined at Glendale this evening, having been taken back there."

REV. T. DEWITT TALMAGE, of Brooklyn, N. Y., accompanied by Governor Blackburn, visited Frankfort on the 30th. During the forenoon he was driven over the city, and among other places which he visited was the Kentucky Penitentiary, where he delivered a short address to the convicts. In the afternoon he delivered a lecture at the Presbyterian Church, before a large audience.

FOR PRESIDENT,

ANNOUNCEMENT.

Richard Reid, of Mt. Sterling, is a candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, to succeed Judge Hargis—subject to the action of the Democracy of the First Appellate District.

Ask those who have seen the O'Brien Big Shows and they will tell you the same thing that it is the largest and best show ever seen in America.

The Appellate Judgeship.

In our extra of last week we suggested the name of Henry L. Stone, a former partner of Judge Richard Reid, for the Appellate Judgeship, but Mr. Stone did not respond to the call, and conceded the right to Mr. Reid, who, after a consultation with his many friends in this and neighboring counties, announced himself as a candidate. Being a member of the superior court, which was elected for the short term of four years for the special purpose of aiding the Appellate Court in its work, the masses of our people recognized Mr. Reid as the most efficient and eminently the proper man in this portion of the district, and his promotion was one step was the proper thing to do. We therefore take pleasure in announcing Judge Reid's candidacy, and in pledging him a warm and earnest support in four counties.

Consolidated Shows.

The many amusement lovers of this section of the world are to be afforded a rare treat on Thursday August 9th, which is the day the above enterprise will be with us. While it has never as yet been customary for the News to greatly eulogize the character of any prospective amusement visitation, under the circumstances we feel it entirely right and perfectly proper to make an exception of this instance, for Nathans & Co., come to us laden with the most glorious successes and the leading papers of the cities which they have visited this season, all accorded them the most generous praise.

The menagerie is said to contain the rarest and most expensive specimens of the animal kingdom and the museum is replete with the most astounding inanimate and living curiosities. But where the exhibition makes its "ten strike" is in the circus performance, which is the best arena entertainment ever given under canvas, being especially noted for its refreshing originality. Don't forget the date, Thursday August 9th.

Noble Clark, Louisville, Ky., says, "I have used Brown's Iron Bitters and find it to be an excellent tonic and all it is recommended."

NOTED MEN!

Dr. JOHN F. HANCOCK,
late President of the National Pharmaceutical Association of the United States, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters has a heavy sale, is conceded to be a fine tonic, the character of the manufacturers is a voucher for its purity and medicinal excellence."

Dr. JOSEPH ROBERTS,
President Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"I endorse it as a fine medicine, reliable as a strengthening tonic, free from alcoholic poisons."

Dr. J. FARIS MOORE, PH. D., Professor of Pharmacy, Baltimore Pharmaceutical College, says:

"Brown's Iron Bitters is a safe and reliable medicine, positively free from alcoholic poisons, and can be recommended as a tonic for use among those who oppose alcohol."

Dr. EDWARD EARICKSON,
Secretary Baltimore College of Pharmacy, says:

"I endorse it as an excellent medicine, a good digestive agent, and a non-intoxicant in the fullest sense."

Dr. RICHARD SAPIINGTON,
one of Baltimore's oldest and most reliable physicians, says:

"All who have used it praise its standard virtues, and the well-known character of the house which makes it a sufficient guarantee of its being all that is claimed, for they are men who could not be induced to offer anything else but a reliable medicine for public use."

THE better class of people have become thoroughly disgusted with camp-meetings. As a rule they are penny-making schemes under the guise of religion, and without exception they are places where many immoral practices are indulged. There is more sin committed against God and society in one day at a camp-meeting than in a whole week on the grounds of the Kentucky Association race-course.—[Nicholasville Journal.

Last week some negroes drove a horse and buggy belonging to Mr. L. Wither- spoon off an embankment breaking the buggy all to pieces and causing the horse to run off. The same night a dead horse was hauled into his pasture which had been driven to death. Tuesday morning two mares belonging to Mr. Will Anderson were missing and they were found in Mr. Sam Wallace's woods. One of them was lame, and it is supposed they were ridden off. Our receipt for this is dynamite —[Midway Clipper.
